MR. CHAMBERLAIN GIVES EMPIRE'S CONSIDERED ANSWER TO HITLER'S PEACE PROPOSALS: EXPECTATION OF AMENDS BY NAZIS IS DOOMED TO DISAPPOINTMENT

Germany Must Choose

THE BRITISH EMPIRE'S CONSIDERED ANSWER TO HERR HITLER'S PEACE PLAN WAS GIVEN IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON BY THE PRIME MINISTER, MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN, WHEN HE PRESENTED HIS WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION, SAYS A REUTER MESSAGE FROM LONDON.

The House was packed and among distinguished personalities in the Galleries were all the Dominion High Commissioners who had played their part in the interchange of views on Hitler's peace proposals between the United Kingdom and the Dominion Governments.

The Prime Minister began by recalling that last week, in speaking of the announcement about the Russo-German Pact, he observed that it contained the suggestion that some peace proposals were likely and had remarked that if such proved the case they should examine them in consultation with the Dominions and the French Republic in the light of certain relevant considerations.

"Since then the German Chancellor has made his speech and the consultations I referred to have taken place," continued Mr. Chamberlain. "I must now state the position of His Majesty's Government."

BACKGROUND RECALLED
The Prime Minister said that before doing so he must recall the background against which the proposals appeared. He went on to recall that at the end of August the British Government were corresponding with the German Government on Poland.

He said, "It was evident that the situation was dangerous but we believed it should be possible to arrive at a peaceful solution, if passions were not deliberately stimulated, and we felt quite certain that the German Government could, if they desired, influence their friends in Danzig to bring about a relaxation of tension and create conditions to a calm and sober negotiation."

Mr. Chamberlain recalled that Herr Hitler had expressed a wish for improved relations between their countries as soon as the Polish question was settled and said, "We pointed out that forcible solution would inevitably involve our obligations to Poland. As everyone knows these efforts on the part of His Majesty's Government to avoid war and the use of force were in vain."

APPEALS RECALLED

Mr. Chamberlain recalled President Roosevelt's appeal and those of the King of the Belgians, the Queen of the Netherlands, Pope Pius and Signor Mussolini.

"It is evident now that Hitler was determined to make war on Poland and whatever sincerity there may have been in his wish to come to an understanding with Britain it was not strong enough to induce him to postpone the attack upon his neighbour."

The Prime Minister recalled the invasion of Poland and the ruin and damage done "in contravention, at any rate in the later stages, of all undertakings of which Hitler now speaks with pride as though he had fulfilled them."

MANY LIVES SACRIFICED
"It was after this wanton act of aggression which caused so many Polish and German lives to be sacrificed to satisfy his own insistence on the use of force that the German Chancellor now puts forward his proposals."

"If there existed any expectation that in these proposals would be included some attempt to make amends for this previous crime

Two Polish Warships Play Havoc With Nazis

LONDON, Oct. 11 (Reuter) — HOW TWO POLISH WARSHIPS, consisting of a destroyer and a minesweeper, in the first three days of the war, played havoc with German destroyers and aircraft was revealed to-day.

Two Polish vessels which took part in the defence of Hel Peninsula were, attacked by five Nazi destroyers on the first day of the war. One of them was sunk and the other four steamed away.

On the second day eight destroyers again attacked the destroyer and a Nazi warship was sent to the bottom. The third day the Polish warships were subjected to a heavy

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter) — In London there were a few cases in which fines were imposed for offences against the black-out regulations, but a whole town was summoned for the offence when the Mayor and citizens of Plymouth were found guilty of allowing lights to be shown from the Guildhall windows.

The town was fined $2.

The Polish destroyer was then sunk with the loss of 18 lives and the next day the minesweeper was destroyed by German planes using incendiary bombs.

Petrol And Light Oils Included In New Order

Higher duties on certain wines and liquors and on petrol and light oils came into force in Hongkong yesterday.

It was made known at yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Council that, immediately before the meeting, His Excellency the Governor, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him under the Public Revenue Protection Ordinance of 1927, had signed an order rescinding the Liquors Duties Resolution of September 9, 1936, and setting up a new scale of duties.

Duties on beer, cider, perry and Chinese and Japanese type liquors are not altered. In respect of other liquors and wines, the following new duties are now in force:—

On all liquors, champagne and other sparkling wines—$16.25 per gallon on British Empire products, and $28 on foreign products, compared with $13 per gallon payable previously, irrespective of origin. On brandy—$6.25 and $20 per gallon respectively, compared with $5 and $10 payable previously. On gin, whisky and other spirituous liquors—$12.50 and $20 per gallon respectively, against $10 payable previously, irrespective of origin.

PORT AND SHERRY
On port, sherry and madeira—$7.50 and $12 per gallon respectively, against $6 payable previously, irrespective of origin. On all other still wines—$6.25 and $10 per gallon respectively, against $5 payable previously, irrespective of origin. The new duty on petrol and light oils has been increased to 60 cents per gallon. The duty on motor spirit of all kinds was formerly 30 cents per gallon.

LITHUANIAN PARLIAMENT CONVOKED

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter) — A German report states that the Lithuanian Parliament has been convoked for to-day in order to ratify the Soviet-Lithuanian Pact. In the agreement, Lithuania not only will get back Wilno but also 57 small towns and a large number of villages, 220 miles of railway and 425 miles of forest.

Joint Appeal By Denmark, Norway, Sweden Against Deprivation Of Finland Of Country's Independence

HELSINKI, OCTOBER 12 (REUTER)—FINNISH AND SOVIET TALKS WILL BEGIN THIS AFTERNOON IN MOSCOW.

It is reported that a joint appeal will be made by Denmark, Sweden and Norway in the hope that Russia will make no demands which will deprive Finland of her independence.

An unconfirmed report states that the United States may use her influence and urge moderation on the part of Russia. Official quarters made no comment on the report and the Finnish Minister in Washington, after visiting White House and the State Department, said that he had no information on the matter.

The Polish Ambassador in Moscow, who arrived here to-day, states that a division of Soviet troops with tanks and artillery is concentrated on the Finnish border while a squadron of 21 jet planes is stationed off the Finnish coast.

100,000 MEN MOBILISED
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 12 (Reuter) — Finland, preparing for all eventualities, has now mobilised 100,000 men, according to reports from Danish correspondents who stated that Finland is in a very different position than in 1918 and now has plenty of aeroplanes, arms and ammunition.

The Finns are busy preparing roads in the countryside against tanks by erecting barricade defences.

The "Politiken" understands that four proposals were made to Finland by Russia as follows:— Firstly, the cession of a number of small islands in the Gulf of Finland.

AIRCRAFT VERSUS WARSHIP — MUCH DEBATED CONTROVERSY

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter) — The Admiralty's further reports of the German aircraft attack on the British cruiser squadron in the North Sea on October 9 is of keen interest to naval critics for it has an important bearing on the much debated "aircraft versus warship" controversy.

It is pointed out that in the encounter of September 26 the British vessels were assisted by fighters but on this occasion the cruisers apparently relied solely on anti-aircraft guns.

Though over 100 bombs were dropped they suffered no injury whatsoever. It is a certainty that three planes were seriously damaged.

The attack was meant to distract the cruisers' attention while commerce raiders slipped out.

There are many indications of German plans to intensify surface raiding on merchantmen in view of the failure of the U-boats.

Colony's Contribution To Defence Expenditure

FINANCIAL SECRETARY'S REVIEW

THE DECISION TO IMPOSE INCOME TAX IN HONGKONG AS ONE OF THE MEANS TO PROVIDE FOR A CONTRIBUTION TO BE MADE TO THE HOME GOVERNMENT towards the prosecution of the war with Germany was announced at the meeting of the Legislative Council yesterday afternoon, when the Draft Estimates for 1940-41 were introduced by the Financial Secretary.

The regular budget is to be replaced by two separate budgets. One will provide for the formal expenditure of Government departments, and the other is in effect a war budget by means of which it is intended that the Colony shall make its contribution for war purposes.

"I hope and believe," said His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, who presided at the meeting, "that there will be universal acceptance here of the fundamental principle that our responsibilities in Hongkong towards Great Britain are in no way less than those of British subjects resident in the United Kingdom; and that just as they are prepared to bear whatever burden the successful conduct of the war may impose upon them, so we also must leave nothing

CHINESE FORCES THREATEN JAPANESE REAR IN NORTH HUNAN; RAILWAY WRECKED

CHANGSHA, Oct. 12 (Central)—Chinese troops are threatening the rear of the Japanese at Yoyang (Xochow), 88 miles north of Changsha, on the Canton-Hankow Railway, in North Hunan.

On the night of October 10 Chinese vanguards, who crossed the Sinsiang River, cut the Canton-Hankow Railway at Yunki, 14 miles northeast of Yoyang. The railway track and bridges there were wrecked.

It is said that the Japanese at Yoyang are perturbed by the Chinese activities in their rear.

Across the Hunan-Hubei border the Chinese advance on Tungcheng continues vigorously. Saikungchiao, a vantage point in the southwestern suburbs, was taken by the Chinese yesterday morning. The city is now besieged on three sides.

Nazi Liner Captured In S. Atlantic

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter) — The German liner Carnegie was captured in the South Atlantic by the British Navy.

According to New York reports of September 22, the liner left a Brazilian port on September 17 with a large cargo of foodstuffs and 2,500 tons of crude oil, with the intention of sailing to Vladivostok.

298,000 TONS OF CARGO TAKEN IN PRIZE

LONDON, Oct. 12 (SWS)—Since the beginning of the war the British Contraband Control has dealt with 375 ships, 107 British and 268 neutral. In the last two weeks about 63 ships have come in, some voluntarily, for examination. The neutral ships include Norwegian, Swedish, Dutch, Greek and Finnish.

During the first month of the war, 298,000 tons of cargo was taken in prize and these cargoes will become the subject of examination in the Prize Court and, therefore, cannot be assumed that the whole quantity of goods will be confiscated.

FRENCH SEIZURES
PARIS, Oct. 12 (Reuter)—The French naval authorities state that 150,000 tons of goods destined for Germany have been confiscated by the French Government. The goods include 40,000 tons of minerals, 40,000 tons of foodstuffs and 30,000 tons of liquid fuel.

FIGHTING IN SHANGHAI

HONGKONG, Oct. 12 (Central)—Fighting in Shanghai centres around the town of Hsichungwan, Puhlien, Sanghai, Fencheng and Linfen.

On the Hsichungwan sector, the Japanese have launched up reinforcements.

SIR GEOFFRY NORTHCOTE'S ADDRESS

His Excellency said: It had been my intention to present a short address to you on this occasion more or less on the lines of that which last year endeavoured to review the salient facts of the preceding twelve months and the more important schemes under Government's consideration. I regret very much that the rush of work caused by Herr Hitler's intromissions has prevented that intention from being fulfilled, and all the more because there has been good progress in many administrative activities and social services which is deserving of record.

I propose, accordingly, to confine my remarks on this occasion to the financial policy and intentions of the Government and I conceive that these will be more rightly appreciated if I first invite attention to the declared policy of His Majesty's Government in this regard. If one were to compare the manner in which this war is being faced by the Government of Great Britain with that of 1914 a fundamental difference would at once be observed. Then, armies, administrative departments and war organizations and requirements of all kinds had to be hastily improvised and the national finances were left to be carried on along normal peace lines; to-day the situation at home presents entirely the contrary picture.

The likelihood of the outbreak of a major war between Great Britain and Germany had long been foreseen, plans had been laid to meet the emergency and the appropriate economic policy had been thought out and made ready.

ADDITIONAL TAXATION
It will be generally agreed, I think, that the outstanding feature of the economic plans of His Majesty's Government, as disclosed in the speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer on Sept. 27 when he introduced his first war emergency budget, was his insistence upon the importance of paying for the war from revenue as far as that was possible.

The inevitability of having also to raise war-loans was clearly recognized, but the immediate step taken was the imposition of heavy additional taxation; at the same time he urged most strongly that it was the duty of the private citizen and of the public institution to avoid all unnecessary expenditure in order that savings might accrue for subsequent investment in war loan. It is an inspiring fact that the British taxpayer has readily, not to say cheerfully, accepted the unprecedented burdens laid upon him.

So much for the way in which the taxpayer at home is facing his duty: what of the duty which lies before us in this small unit of the British Empire?

I hope—and believe that there will be universal acceptance here of the fundamental principle that our responsibilities, in Hongkong towards Great Britain are in no way less than those of British subjects resident in the United Kingdom; and that just as they are prepared to bear whatever burden the successful conduct of the war may impose upon them, so we also must leave nothing undone that we can do towards that end. In other words, this is every whit as much our war as it is Britain's.

NOT MAXIMUM DEMAND
It is in accordance with that principle that the financial proposals that will be placed before you at this session have been framed and I take this early opportunity of saying that they are not to be looked upon as the maximum demand that may be made on the local taxpayer before victory crowns our arms. They are, however, all that we can wisely do at the moment.

With this object in view it is Government's intention to replace the budget which is formally before you to-day by two separate budgets: the former will provide for the normal expenditure of Government departments, the latter is designed to fulfil our obligations as a member of the British Empire while engaged in a major war.

It may surprise you that what I will describe as the ordinary budget does not show greater reductions in expenditure. The estimates, of course, were fairly well advanced when war broke out; and, early in September we were in the act of considering the extent to which they should be cut down when I received from the Secretary of State some very valuable guidance.

In effect Mr. MacDonald's counsel was that subject to two provisos of which I will make mention later, there should be as little disturbance as possible with the Colony's current activities and developmental schemes, so long as revenue to finance them would be forthcoming. In particular the desire was expressed that existing social services and approved plans for their extension should continue as far as was possible; furthermore any marked retrenchment in the Civil Service was deprecated unless and until we were advised by him so to act.

It will be agreed, I think, that this confident policy, which unquestionably reflects that of His Majesty's Government, is very enlightening at such a time as the present.

TWO PROVISO

The Secretary of State's two provisos, which I mentioned just now as being conditions to be observed in framing the estimates, dealt with the following points. Firstly, the great importance of conserving the exchange resources of Great Britain through control over the purchase and export of foreign currencies and of those British currencies which are not on a sterling footing.

Hongkong's procedure in this respect it was found, could not be quite "on all fours" with that of other British Colonies, because of the pre-dominant importance of our entrepot trade, and special treatment of the problem was therefore permitted to us.

I have asked the Honourable the Financial Secretary to give the Council a connected account of the measures taken by Government with this end in view, and I myself shall have a further word to say on this subject when speaking of the revenue estimates. The second point on which the Secretary of State expressed a proviso was the avoidance of expenditure, which by creating a demand for unessential goods would deflect men, materials and shipping from war purposes.

In this connexion I may say that I had already given orders that work on my successor's new house should be stopped before this wise advice was received!

So much for the expenditure estimates in the ordinary budget, which will be more fully explained by the Honourable the Financial Secretary in his speech this afternoon and in the memorandum prepared by him. On the Revenue side there are considerable alterations to be made, but these do not appear in the printed volume. The most important of them are the increases in duties on petrol and alcoholic liquors which have a dual purpose, viz., to raise more revenue, and to effectuate the policy of conserving sterling exchange: the other implement certain recommendations of the Taxation Committee, and I will leave it to my Honourable friend to state their nature.

DEFENCE BUDGET

The estimated financial outcome of what I have called the ordinary budget is a small surplus. That expectation is due partly to the additional revenue from the sources just mentioned and partly to the transfer of certain appropriate expenses to the defence budget. If, however, during the fifteen-month period which the estimates cover it appears that a deficit is probable, it should not be difficult to curtail expenditure, and especially capital expenditure, sufficiently to avoid that result.

I come now to the defence budget, by means of which Hongkong will make its contribution towards the prosecution of the war against Germany. That contribution may take one of two forms, the first being the meeting from our own pockets of such additional local expenditure as the situation may demand for volunteer naval, military and air defences and other war services; the other, free gifts in cash or in kind to His Majesty's Government towards its aim viz. the defeat of the enemy. The former of these has its natural limitations and not wide ones at that; but I trust that not only every member of this House but also every citizen of this Colony will agree that there should be no limit upon the aid that we should give to His Majesty's Government other than our ultimate ability to pay. Quite obviously in this lightly taxed community that limit lies at a great distance and could not be reached through existing revenue channels.

It is therefore necessary to create new means and Government has decided that an Income Tax is by far the most suitable. Steps will therefore be taken at once to draft the necessary legislation and to bring into being the necessary machinery. My hope is that within six months that machinery will be at work. Plans are not far enough advanced as yet for any detailed description, but in order to prevent unnecessary alarm I will say that it is not intended at the initial stage to prescribe very high rates of tax.

PRINCIPLES OUTLINED

Attention has also been given to the question of taxing Excess Profits. There may plainly be justification for such a measure in due course, but I feel—and I know that my Honourable friend agrees with me—that we had better tackle the Income Tax problem first and, when that has been done, take up again the matter of Excess Profits Duty.

This address is, of course, intended to do no more than outline the principles in accordance with which this Colony's financial policy for the near future is being framed and the Honourable the Financial Secretary will, this afternoon, explain the Government's proposals in simpler measure.

I have tried to put before you the twofold duty which rests upon this Legislature at this juncture. On the one hand, we are responsible for the proper care, a phrase which includes improvement, of this small but important part of His Majesty's Empire and it is especially incumbent upon us to maintain and, as far as we can extend, the Colony's social services, particularly public health and education; you will find increased provision in the ordinary budget under both those heads.

On the other hand it is our duty as well as in our interest to give all that we can to help His Majesty's Government in the great struggle in which the Empire is engaged.

The task of this Government is to find the right balance between these two duties and I confidently hope that you will find yourselves able to endorse the proposals that are now about to come before you. I do not wish to be thought to make light of the burden which they will lay upon the shoulders of the taxpayers of Hongkong. The Income Tax, even at the relatively low basic rate of two shillings in the pound, must inevitably give a shock to the social and commercial structures of the Colony, and considerable adjustment will be necessary in order to absorb that shock. Nevertheless I am fully confident that they will no more shrink their duty where their money is concerned than they have in offering their services, and if necessary their lives, in Britain's cause.

I now commend the business of the meeting to your consideration.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY'S SPEECH

The Hon. Mr. Sidney Caine said: You have indicated in their main outlines the financial intentions of Government in the new conditions which exist to-day. Circumstances have unfortunately compelled the Government to put those intentions before Council and the Colony which that Council represents in two stages. There has been no time since the outbreak of war to reach finality in our proposals for wartime measures and then to re-print the estimates in accordance with our decisions; on the other hand, in view of the approaching end of the financial year, it was inadvisable to defer presentation until the estimates could be recast in print so as to conform with those later proposals.

The only possible course, therefore, was to lay the estimates as printed before the Council, to state when doing so that they would undergo a considerable metamorphosis and lastly in Select Committee to recast them in their new form, or rather forms, for there will be two budgets for the duration of the war where one used to grow in peace time.

I am very sorry for any confusion that this way of handling the subject may have caused but in the circumstances I fear that that was inevitable. But so far as the ordinary estimates of expenditure are concerned the changes to be made are of a "paper" rather than a "practical" nature. It is the defence budget where most of the innovations come.

We propose, as you excellently have said, to have two budgets, the ordinary one which will strongly resemble the budgets of previous years, and a defence budget which will be quite new and I hope a feature of only a year or two.

AN INNOVATION

After that general explanation I have to ask Honourable Members to turn their attention back to the original estimates of expenditure for 1940/41 which have been in their hands for 10 days. As a memorandum explaining the principle matters of novelty contained in them was circulated at the same time I do not propose to deal with those estimates at any great length.

I fear that the innovation, for which I was responsible, of permitting the Press to see the printed estimates with the Council's Order of Business, has led some of the papers to misinterpret them and the statement of Government's full proposals may be disappointing to those who read some of the more sensational quotations published yesterday afternoon.

The Press have also given due prominence to one fact shown by the print, that is that we already have the forty million budget which I spoke of as a possibility of the more distant future twelve months ago. Expenditure and, fortunately, revenue as well have continued to increase automatically with the increase of population. On a peace basis an approximate balance was expected but the war is likely to increase expenditure in many directions without correspondingly increasing revenue from existing sources.

NEW EXPENDITURE

The estimates as printed contain no innovations in revenue apart from the re-arrangement of the heads in more convenient form. As to expenditure the procedure of examination by a select committee of this Council which will be followed this year as before will afford full opportunity for honourable members to make any comments which they desire and elucidate any obscurities in the details. Those details were mainly settled before the outbreak of war, but no necessity is seen at present to alter them at all considerably.

In preparing the final draft, a number of items of new expenditure which it had originally been desired to include were deleted in order to avoid budgeting for any substantial deficit in the uncertain circumstances which lie before us; but the Government have very definitely refrained from economising at the expense either of social services or of measures of economic development.

Your Excellency has made clear that there is no intention to curtail those services in order to provide funds for the new calls which the war must make upon our resources.

I venture, indeed, to say that, large as the expenditure must appear, all of it is either essential or extremely desirable in order to maintain the public services of this Colony and to enable the Government to discharge its obligations to the community. Honourable members will find that much of the increase in recurrent charges is directly due to our increased population, e.g. the increases in the Police and Sanitary Departments.

PUBLIC WORKS

The programme of Public Works Extraordinary includes many items of a capital nature which are essential to carry on the economic development of the Colony. Evidence of the intention to continue the development of social services is given by the provision for the commencement of a new Queen's College, a new Infectious Diseases Hospital and new Health Centres, as well as a new Volunteer Headquarters. The actual amounts expected to be spent on any of those buildings next year are small, but their inclusion will give approval for proceeding definitely with plans for them and concluding a contract for the work.

Nonetheless, we must not be wholly unprepared for financial difficulties and the programme of public works extraordinary and also the many items of special expenditure appearing in the individual heads of estimates, although they may be approved by this Council and the Secretary of State, will not be automatically carried out if the revenue position does not justify the expenditure.

All such items require the individual authority of Government before expenditure is incurred on them; and that approval will be withheld if necessary. In addition it is proposed to draw up a schedule of additional needs provided for in the estimates the filling

CURRENT FILMS

KING'S:—The Dawn Patrol (Warner Bros.). Well-produced film glorifying the exploits of the air force. Not the first picture with the same theme, but better than most. With Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven and Donald Crisp.

QUEEN'S:—Hotel Imperial (Paramount). Hollywood's latest foreign star, Isa Miranda, teams with Ray Milland in a drama of war-torn Balkans. Good direction by Robert Florey, technical excellence and warm performance make this an outstanding picture.

ORIENTAL:—Wuthering Heights (United Artists). Start drama of thwarted love and family hatred adapted faithfully from Emily Brontë's powerful novel. Very good acting and good Yorkshire atmosphere are the main attractions of a film that, despite a few minor faults, has a vigorous, sombre appeal.

CATHAY:—Charlie Chan in Reno (20th Century-Fox). Sidney Toler does a good job in the role of the famous Chinese detective, but he is no Warner Oland. The story is above the average.

ALHAMBRA:—Union Pacific (Paramount). The building of the Union Pacific railway against long odds. Rich in vigorous melodrama, punctuated by thrills and action, and very well acted by Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea, Akim Tamiroff, Brian Donlevy and others. Rather long, but engrossing.

MAJESTIC:—Marie Antoinette (MGM). Norma Shearer, as the tragic French queen, gives a performance that is perhaps second only to her portrayal of Elizabeth Barrett Browning in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street". The cast includes Tyrone Power, Robert Morley and Joseph Schildkraut.

STAR:—Little Miss Roughneck (Warner Bros.). Edith Felloes and Leo Carillo in an enjoyable, tip-roaring and convincing comedy.

DRUG SAVES BABY FROM BLINDNESS

The new drug, "M and B 693," which has prevented thousands of deaths in pneumonia cases, has saved the sight of a child only 14 days old.

Soon after the birth, in a country house near London, doctors found that the baby had an eye infection, not uncommon with new-born infants, which usually causes permanent injury to the sight.

Every known treatment was given and failed. The baby was in danger of being half-blind for life.

Then one doctor suggested that the new drug, "M and B 693," introduced only a year ago, should be used.

A leading eye specialist was consulted and agreed that this was the only chance.

"This cure is of great importance, especially in so young a child," a medical expert, who has closely followed the case, stated.

Dr. Tully Gmeyer, 35-years-old Austrian woman doctor of music, died in Hampstead General Hospital four hours after falling 60ft. from the window of a house in Belsize Park gardens, Hampstead.

Dr. Gmeyer lived with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morduch. At her home it was stated that she had been depressed and in poor health.

"DAWN PATROL" OPENS AT THE KING'S TO-DAY

Right up on top of your "must-be-seen" list goes "Dawn Patrol," Warner Bros. thrilling document of British wartime aviation, which opens at the King's Theatre to-day.

The great cast headed by Errol Flynn and including David Niven, Basil Rathbone and Donald Crisp, plus some of the most breathtaking aerial combat scenes ever taken, all serve to make "The Dawn Patrol" one of the more important offerings of the season.

Flynn, playing the dashing Courtney, who together with Niven, form a pair of hell-for-leather flying fools of the British Royal Flying Corps, continue day after day, night after night, to wreak havoc with the enemy while death takes its toll regularly among their less experienced comrades.

Here is the sort of story that strikes home. The right tone has been captured by the producers, and the cast has done its part perfectly. The insouciant feeling of here, to-day—gone to-morrow—permeates throughout. The frolicking fliers who night after night before they take off on their death-dealing dawn patrols, join in mad fun, are real men whose spirit it is easy to understand.

Others in the cast who share in the glory due to go with this film are Melville, Cooper, Barry Fitzgerald, Carl Esmond, Peter Willes, Morton Lowry, Michael Brooke, and James Burke, an almost entirely British cast.

British Air Mission To Canada

LORD RIVERDALE AS LEADER.

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Sir Kingsley Wood, Air Minister, announced the composition of the British Air Mission to Canada in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon.

The leader is Lord Riverdale, a Northern industrialist, and the Deputy Leader is Air-Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham.

Mr. L. F. Earle, Managing Director of one of our largest aircraft manufacturing companies, will be a member of the Mission, which will also comprise technical and other officers.

As Air-Chief Marshal Sir Brooke-Popham is now on service abroad, his place will be taken temporarily by Air-Vice-Marshal Sir Christopher Courtney.

The Parliamentary Secretary to the Air Ministry, Captain Balfour, will also go to Canada to help in the arrangements which Canada have to make for consultations with the Mission from Australia and New Zealand.

LORD TWEEDSMUIR TO SEEK MEDICAL ADVICE IN N.Y.

QUEBEC, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, is going to New York next week for a general medical overhaul. No serious concern is felt over his health.

ULSTER'S RESPONSE TO CALL FOR SERVICE

BELFAST, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Lord Craigavon, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, declared yesterday that the response of Ulstermen to the call for service was wholly satisfactory.

"I am proud," he said, "at what has been done and is being done to help the mother-country."

Lord Craigavon added that he would make a weekly statement in Parliament, which would meet on two days a week, instead of three.

AUSTRALIAN WOMEN
LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—An Australian Women's Volunteer Service has been formed in London to look after the welfare of Australians.

A bureau has been set up in Australia House to enrol Australians and others who wish to join.

A pet tom cat, which was accidentally trodden on by its elderly mistress, caused her death by biting her. This was revealed at a Liverpool inquest on Mrs. Miriam Abrahams, aged 69, of Albany-road, Liverpool. Verdict: Accidental Death.

NAZI PARTY DISCONTENT

GERMAN RETREAT BEFORE SOVIET

PARIS, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Rumours of discontent among Nazi Party officials and prominent Army men, some of whom participated in the formation of the Freikorps in Baltic countries, are referred to in an Amsterdam dispatch to a journal in Paris.

They feel that the abandonment by Germany of the position once held in countries owing their civilisation to Germany constitutes an incomprehensible sacrifice and open to much criticism.

Following the alliance with the Bolsheviks, the evacuation of Germans from Baltic countries is arousing discontent with the higher ranks of the Party.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Some indication of the bitter attitude of the German minority in Belgium to the events in the Baltic can be seen in the editorial in a leading newspaper in Eupen District ceded to Belgium by Germany after the Great War.

The newspaper says that the Baltic events are a lesson for German-speaking Belgians. "Most German-speaking peoples in the Baltic made the mistake of identifying their Germanism with Nazi ideology and with the support of the 'Drang Nach Osten' (Thrust to East)."

"They must bitterly regret their error to-day. We believe the shocking events in the Baltic have opened the eyes of our fellow citizens and that soon all of them will realise their good fortune in being equal citizens of this Christian and Democratic State, which, far from trying to suppress their German character, protects it."

Nazi Attack On British Cruiser

BOMBS FALL WIDE: NO HITS

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—An Admiralty communique says that a further account of the German air attack upon the British cruiser squadron confirms that no ship was hit and no casualties sustained.

The enemy attack continued for over five hours and over a hundred bombs were dropped. One salvo fell near enough to throw a few splinters on to a cruiser, but the others were wide, sometimes a mile wide.

ALLEGATION AGAINST DOMINICA DENIED

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—The rumour that the Dominican Government is using her mother-ships to refuel German submarines operating in the Caribbean Sea was denied by Mr. Geoffrey Shakespeare, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, when he was questioned in the House of Commons.

He said he was satisfied that the Dominican Republic was fulfilling her obligations as usual.

NEWSETTES

The office of the Japanese Consulate-General will be moved to No. 2, Connaught Road, top floor, as from to-morrow.

In connection with the Bandaging Class and War Work to be held in the Y.M.C.A. on Monday, all hospital supplies made by this working party are to be sent to local hospitals in order to release other sources of supply for the home centres.

Authoritative Chinese quarters in Hongkong yesterday denied the Shanghai report that Gen. Chen Ming-shun, former Commander-in-Chief of the 19th Route Army, is joining Wang Ching-wei's "peace" movement. Gen. Chen, it was pointed out, is now in Chungking and is one of the staunchest supporters of armed resistance against the Japanese.

Hearing was fixed for Oct. 31, at 2.30 p.m., of the case in which Wong Yau-kee, unemployed actor, is charged with throwing acid at Ho Shui-fong, with intent to disable or maim, at No. 38 Sa Ma Pung, on September 25, when he appeared before Mr. R.A.D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday. A week's formal remand was granted; Det. Sub-Insps. W.N. Darkin is in charge of the case.

Mr. Liu Chueh-min, member of the Control Yuan, died at Siao-yi, Honan, on October 9, according to a message received here. Mr. Yu Yu-jen, President of the Control Yuan, has sent a message of condolence to the family of the deceased.

Madame Chiang Kai-shek urged the women of Szechwan to redouble their efforts in wartime services when she spoke before a meeting of prominent women here on Wednesday. Those present at the meeting included Dr. Wu Yi-fang, President of the Gilling Girls College, and a number of foreign women.

The Executive Yuan, at its meeting on Wednesday, formally appointed Gen. Han Teh-ching, Chairman of the Kiangsu Provincial Government, to succeed Gen. Ku Chu-tung, General Han has been serving as acting Chairman of Kiangsu. Upon the recommendations of the Ministries of Interior and Education respectively, the Yuan ordered the commendation of the late Mr. Chu Sung-lu and Mr. Nieh Hsi-fan, respectively former editor of the Shanghai Ta Mei Wan Pao and principal of the Shanghai Middle School, who were murdered recently in Shanghai by Wang Ching-wei's agents.

BUDGET MEETING

of which will similarly be subject to special approval. That procedure will enable Government to proceed with these appointments if the financial position does not deteriorate but ensures a continuous control in the light of current financial circumstances.

DEFENCE CONTRIBUTION

There is only one other point to which I want to refer in the estimates as printed. The change in the system of calculating the Colony's Ordinary Defence Contribution has necessitated a change, essentially of a bookkeeping nature, in the accounts of the waterworks undertaking.

Briefly, instead of charging against the waterworks a 20 per cent. of its gross revenue less debt charges as under the old routine that charge has been deleted and, to compensate, the part of the general rates credited in the accounts to the waterworks undertaking has been reduced from 2 per cent. to 1 per cent. The net effect on the waterworks finances is a difference of only a thousand or so dollars.

I turn now to the effects on the estimates as printed of the new financial proposals outlined by Your Excellency. Let me take the war budget first. To it will be credited the whole proceeds of Income Tax. Those proceeds will be used, first, to meet the costs of collection of income tax; secondly, to pay for the expenditure on local defence now appearing in Heads 6A, 6B and 6C, that is, the Volunteer Defence Corps, the Naval Volunteer Force and the Air Raid Precautions Department; thirdly to meet the additional expenses in various directions necessitated by new services created to meet war time necessities, e.g. maintenance of German internees, censorship services, etc.

The whole balance of the proceeds will be made available as a special war contribution to His Majesty's Government, to be spent as they think fit, locally or at home. This will be entirely additional to the ordinary Defence Contribution of $6,000,000 per annum which will continue to be a charge on the ordinary budget.

The new expenditure on the Income Tax Department and on special war expenditure will of course be duly authorized by this Council and estimates for those purposes will be submitted as soon as they can be prepared. Members will naturally want to know how this is expected to work out in figures.

We are proposing a standard rate of Income Tax of 10 per cent., with a possible surtax on very high incomes. I will explain later more of the detail, but the yield at 10 per cent. was put by the Taxation Committee at about $10,000,000 per annum.

LOT OF GUESSWORK

I can at present give no reliable estimate of the costs of administration, but they are likely to be only a small percentage. The local defence and war expenses are not likely to aggregate more than $2,000,000 per annum and the balance payable to His Majesty's Government should be of the order of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000. I do beg, however, that nobody will hold these figures against me if they turn out wrong. There are no statistics whatever of total incomes in the Colony and we are compelled to do a lot of guesswork at this stage.

ORDINARY BUDGET: COST OF SUPPLIES

Turning to the ordinary budget, we must reckon with increases in expenditure in many services not directly connected with the war. All supplies, for instance, are likely to cost more; unfortunately as we are so dependent on imports we can do very little to prevent prices rising.

Revenue on the other hand, is likely to suffer by the reduction in our swollen population which has recently begun and which is so welcome on general grounds, and by the reduction of luxury expenditure which Your Excellency has urged and to which the payment of income tax will itself contribute.

Accordingly, even if there had been no intention to make any special contribution to His Majesty's Government I should have proposed some increase of taxation in order to provide ourselves with some margin of reserve. That margin is secured by the proposals Your Excellency has described, the effect of which is as follows.

EXPENDITURE SIDE

On the expenditure side the ordinary budget will be relieved of the costs of the Volunteer forces and Air Raid Precautions, estimated in the printed volume at about $1,800,000 for 1940/41.

On the revenue side the ordinary budget will benefit by receipts from other new taxation referred to by Your Excellency, principally the imposition of additional duties on petrol and liquor. These proposals are not put forward mainly with a view to increasing the revenue, but for purposes connected with foreign exchange policy which I will explain more fully in a few minutes. The additional taxes are designed deliberately to check consumption and cannot be expected to produce a proportional amount of revenue.

The revenue will also benefit a little by steps which have been taken or are in contemplation to implement certain minor recommendations of the Taxation Committee.

School fees are being increased as from January 1, fees for maintenance in hospitals are being revised, especially for Government servants; and discussions are in train with the object of securing the payment of royalties by certain public utility companies as recommended by the Committee.

In all the additional revenue, mainly of course from the petrol and liquor duties, should be not less than $1,000,000 per annum.

NOMINAL SURPLUS

The revised ordinary budget should, therefore, show a nominal surplus of some $2,000,000, but since it is not proposed to make any specific amendments to allow for declines in other items of revenue and increases in costs of supplies, etc., that nominal surplus will be rather a reserve than a true expectation of excess of revenue.

PROVISIONAL FIGURES OF INCOME TAX

I promised a few minutes ago to give some further details of the Income Tax proposals; but the figures I shall quote must be taken as provisional only. Although Government is convinced of the necessity of such a measure in principle there is no intention to thrust upon the Council a scheme cut and dried in all its details and all the personal and other allowances will be open to full discussion in this Council, or in any special committee which may be set up to consider the details. Honourable members and the public will, however, wish to have some idea of what is in Government's mind on those points.

STANDARD RATE

The standard rate of 10 per cent. will be charged on all company profits, payments of interest, etc. and on all income in respect of which the recipient has made no claim to personal and family allowances; but the man who makes such a claim will pay at 10 per cent. only on the balance of his income after deducting his allowances and after paying at half rate, 5 per cent. on the first part of his taxable income.

The allowances Government has provisionally in mind are earned income allowances, one-tenth of earned income up to

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 13, 1939

JAPANESE JITTERS

PRINCE KONOYE'S almost abject assurances that "Japan will abjure all claims attributable to a conqueror in the interest of lasting peace with China" constitute a straw in the wind that requires careful analysis.

THE FIRST THING that will strike newspaper readers in connection with this new "peace gesture" is its similarity to the sweet warblings of Herr Hitler in Europe. Like Hitler, Japan has swallowed a good deal of eminently indigestible territory, and, like him again, she is apprehensive both of internal revolt and external pressure to make her disgorge. Therefore she follows his example in seeking to make peace on terms enabling her to enjoy what she has thus far been able to grab.

WHAT PRINCE KONOYE'S proposals really meant when they were first made was exhaustively explained by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in the speech which he devoted to them last January. What they mean to-day can be gathered from the preparations for the establishment of a puppet "Central Government," the abortive Japanese offensive in Huhai, and the picture presented by Japanese rule in every part of China where it exists.

THERE IS NO DOUBT that the former Premier finds it unfortunate that Japan is in China as a very uncomfortable conqueror—that he would rather that the Chinese should submit to Japanese direction in every phase of their national life without being compelled to do so by armed force. The Chinese have their own reasons for objecting to the attentions of a neighbour who has been trying to ram "co-operation" down their throats. Prince KonoYE too begins to see the unwisdom of such tactics—because they are both unproductive and expensive.

THERE IS NO SIGN, however, that Tokyo is taking any action indicating that all these "peace feelers" are more than empty words. What could be a better proof of "friendship" for China than the evacuation of her territory. Surely the safety of Japan herself would not be prejudiced by such a course.

CHINA MAY REJOICE that her resistance has exacted from the man who boasted that she would be "beaten to her knees" such a marked change of tone. Prince KonoYE was talking not only for the benefit of the world at large, but also to the Japanese people, whose dissatisfaction with the China adventure is constantly forcing their statesmen to invent new explanations and disclaimers of responsibility for this "sacred mission." More and stronger resistance will undoubtedly compel concessions that go beyond mere words. Let China waver, and the old bluster of the Japanese militarists will re-appear at once.

WORK OF THE NAVY

IN AN ARTICLE written for "The Times" on September 29, a review is made of the work of the navy during the first weeks of the war.

Sound Health Development

MISS MAVIS MING'S ADDRESS TO H.K. Y'S MEN'S CLUB

Miss Mavis Ming, local organiser and secretary of the Women's League of Health and Beauty, was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Hong Kong Y's Men's Club, held in the St. Francis Hotel yesterday.

There was a large attendance of members, and it being the Club's ladies' day, there was also a large number of the fair sex present.

MODERN METHOD
The modern method of physical training started by Mrs. Bagot Stack, said Miss Ming, did not aim to build muscles, but at the development of the figure and at giving sound health and personal well-being.

Miss Ming performed some of the exercises to demonstrate what she meant.

In referring to the health of Chinese women, Miss Ming said that their physique had greatly improved during the past few years due to their participation in sports.

Many Chinese women who had no opportunity of taking exercise remained undeveloped and are not in sound health. The defects are passed on to future generations.

Miss Ming was heartily applauded at the conclusion of her talk. The meeting was presided over by Mr. S. B. Tan, vice-president.

SPECIAL HONOUR
It was learned yesterday that at the recent International Convention, the Hong Kong Y's Men's Club was awarded special honour, being considered one of the ten best clubs out of 196 in 16 countries in the way of organization, activities and services performed.

On Oct. 21, Y's Men resident in Hong Kong will entertain other members resident in Kowloon and in the outposts at dinner at No. 14 Koon Ma Terrace, Happy Valley.

COLONY HEALTH BULLETIN

Thirty-four cases of tuberculosis, 12 cases of dysentery, 3 cases of enteric fever, one case of cholera and one case of cerebro-spinal fever were notified to the Health Department on Oct. 11.

THE IMPORTANT POINT is that German shipping has disappeared from the seas. Within a week of the outbreak of war it was reported from the Spanish port of Vigo that no fewer than 54 German ships were sheltering in that capacious port, while 2,000,000 tons remain now safe in German or neutral ports. Others, such as the Norddeutscher-Lloyd steamer Inn, were sunk by their own crews. The submarine menace has largely been overcome as not a single British ship has been sunk since October 9. The sober optimism of Mr. Winston Churchill in his forecasts of the prospects of submarine war on British commerce rests on a solid basis, however unrestricted it may become in future.

GERMANY is no doubt capable of turning out a new submarine every few weeks, but skilled submarine commanders are not so rapidly trained, as the experience of 1918-1919 proved.

THREE YEARS AGO the Germans agreed not to make war on non-combatants at sea and in some cases German submarine commanders have acted in a humane manner, but the torpedoing of the Athenia, sunk without warning with a loss of 128 lives and of the Manara, the Goodwood and the Vancouver City prove that "unrestricted" submarine warfare is now the fashion, not only for British ships but also for neutral ones as well, the object of course being to imperil the food supply, and to cut off essential imports, but as Mr. Winston Churchill said yesterday, there is 58,000 tons more British shipping at sea to-day than when he made his last statement.

BUDGET MEETING

$15,000; personal allowance, $1,350 for a wife; children, $1,000 for the first child and $800 for each subsequent child. The 5 per cent. rate would be charged on the first $3,000 after deducting allowances.

Under this scheme, the exemption limit would be $1,800 per annum for unearned income and $2,000 for earned income; and a married man with two children would be exempt up to $5,280 per annum and would only pay the full rate of 10 per cent. on income in excess of $8,600 per annum. The following are random examples of the tax payable by such a man on various incomes, ignoring a possible surtax on the highest incomes, a matter which is still receiving the consideration of Government.

$400 per annum, $50.
$750 per annum, $455.
$1,260 per annum, $1,225.

ADMINISTRATION

OF TAX
Before leaving this subject of income tax I would say a word about its administration. The Taxation Committee recommended that there should be a preliminary expert investigation of the administrative difficulties; but circumstances now render it impossible to secure the services of an expert and Government had to decide either to go ahead at once or to wait until after the war, when of course the urgent need would have vanished. It is equally impossible to get an expert from home even to help start the Department and we must do it with our own resources.

FORMIDABLE TASK

Government is only too well aware that that is a formidable undertaking and I most earnestly crave the patience and indulgence of this Council in order to make this new departure a success in the short time at our disposal we have to ask in the beginning for what may seem an extravagant temporary establishment. I also crave the patience of the public who will have to put up with the mistakes and delays which we can hardly avoid in the early stages. I can only promise that we will do our best and express a hope that we may receive helpful co-operation from the public.

EXCHANGE CONTROL
I come finally to the measures of exchange control and other steps to safeguard our foreign exchange resources which have been taken, or are in contemplation, on which Your Excellency has desired me to make a statement for the information of Honourable Members.

It will be necessary for the home Government to make very large purchases for war purposes from non-sterling countries including Canada, the United States and the neutral European countries. They will need all the resources they can obtain in the currencies of those countries. The first objective of exchange control measures is therefore to secure as far as possible that foreign exchange which may be held or may be acquired in the United Kingdom and the other parts of the Empire whose currencies are on a sterling basis should be made available to the Government.

In their full form the necessary measures include the taking over by Government of all sums held in foreign currencies by residents in the countries concerned and the surrender to Government of all sums subsequently acquired by such residents whether as interest on overseas investments or as the result of the export of goods to foreign countries.

PROCEEDS OF EXPORT

To control the surrender of the proceeds of exports a system is introduced by which exports are only permitted by licence which requires such surrender as one of its conditions. Having got control of all the available foreign exchange resources the Government then secures that they are used only for purposes which are considered essential or desirable by limiting purchases of foreign currencies by the public to authorized dealers who are instructed by the central authority as to the purposes for which exchange may be sold.

This again is backed by a system of import licensing which requires the approval of some Government authority before any imports can be admitted. As yet a further measure, direct steps are taken to prohibit absolutely the import of commodities which are regarded entirely as luxuries. The circumstances of Hong Kong and particularly the great entrepot

COST OF LIVING IN HONGKONG

(To the Editor, the "Hong Kong Daily Press")

Sir—Can anyone inform me what is the percentage of increase in the cost of living in Hong Kong since the Sino-Japanese hostilities, and also since the outbreak of the Allied War?

"INTERESTED"

Coolies Fight: Bound Over: Two Discharged

A fight between 15 coolies, at a building site at Blue Pool Road, had a sequel before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, at the Central Court yesterday.

Two of the defendants were discharged, whilst the rest were bound over in the sum of $5 for one year.

It was stated that a quarrel arose through one party of coolies, who delivered building materials, refusing to take orders to place the materials at a certain place, from the coolies who were working on the buildings.

In each case a saving of from $85 to $115 per annum. Vehicles which have already paid licence fees for this year will be eligible for proportionate refund as from the 1st October.

TAXES EXEMPTED

No similar concession will be made to taxis, but the additional burden of the petrol tax in their case may be regarded as a substitute for the special taxation of the taxi operators which was suggested by the Taxation Committee, but which the Government does not now intend to pursue.

The second action which it is proposed to take to limit exports which are undesirable from the exchange point of view is the enactment of legislation enabling the Government prohibit the import of specified articles except under licence.

It is proposed that licences should be issued freely when the importer is able to give guarantees that the articles will be sold only for re-export but very sparingly in other cases, and the application of this system will be limited to articles which can conveniently be controlled in such a way. The bill of an ordinance to provide for such a system will be introduced as early as possible.

I now move formally the Resolution standing in my name, that the draft estimates for 1940/41 be approved; but in doing so I give formal notice that amendments on the lines just indicated will be proposed in the Select Committee to which the Resolution will presumably be referred.

SIR HENRY POLLOCK

Sir Henry Pollock, Senior Unofficial Member, proposed that the Draft Estimates as presented be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Colonial Secretary, the Financial Secretary and all Unofficial Members.

Sir Henry thanked His Excellency the Governor and the Financial Secretary for the explanations they had given the Council of the proposed financial measures, and said that he felt it would be premature to address any remarks upon the budget, or budgets, at this stage.

The amendment, as proposed by Sir Henry and seconded by the Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, was passed. It is learned that the Select Committee will immediately proceed with the examination of the Estimates, and that introduction of the formal Budget and the debate thereon will take place on November 9.

THOSE PRESENT

Present at the meeting were:—His Excellency the Governor, His Excellency Major-General A. E. Grasett, (General Officer Commanding), Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, (Colonial Secretary), Hon. Mr. C. G. Alabaster, (Attorney General), Hon. Mr. R. A. C. North, (Secretary for Chinese Affairs), Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, (Financial Secretary), Hon. Cmdr. G. F. Hole, (Harbour Master), Hon. Mr. C. G. Perdue, (Acting Commissioner of Police), Hon. Dr. F. S. Selwyn-Clarke, (Director of Medical Services), Hon. Mr. A. B. Purves, (Director of Public Works), Hon. Sir Henry Pollock, Hon. Mr. T. E. Pearce, Hon. Mr. T. N. Chan, Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almeida, Hon. Mr. A. L. Shields, Hon. Mr. C. B. Burgess, (Deputy Clerk of Council).

FINLAND WILLING TO ACCEPT SOVIET DEMANDS IF GIVEN CONCESSIONS IN KARELIAN AUTONOMOUS STATE

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—ACCORDING TO THE ROME RADIO, THE FINNISH GOVERNMENT IS SAID TO HAVE DECLARED THEIR WILLINGNESS TO MAKE CONCESSIONS TO RUSSIA, PROVIDED FINLAND IN RETURN IS GIVEN CONCESSIONS IN KARELIA, THE AUTONOMOUS SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLIC.

A message from Helsinki states that several divisions of Soviet troops, as well as many large tanks and heavy artillery, have been moved to the Finnish frontier.

The Finnish Foreign Minister will broadcast to the United States to-night and there is a desperate hope that the United States will counsel moderation to the Soviet.

MOSCOW, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—The Finnish Mission, headed by M. Paasivirta, Finland's Minister in Stockholm and former Prime Minister, arrived here yesterday and was met by M. Barkov, Soviet Chief of Protocol, the Finnish Legation staff and the envoys of the Scandinavian countries.

A message from Berlin states that according to the Official News Agency, the Finnish Foreign Minister, M. Erkkila, will broadcast an appeal to the United States to-day.

Meanwhile, the voluntary evacuation of Helsinki is following and there are long queues outside the stations and banks and air raid precautions are being accelerated.

CHAMBERLAIN

against humanity, following so soon upon violation of the rights of Czechoslovakia as a nation, it has been doomed to disappointment. The Polish State and its leaders are covered with abuse. "It is evident that Hitler regards that part of Poland he describes as a German sphere of interests as a matter for consideration of Germany alone to be settled solely in accordance with German interests."

HITLER'S VIEW

Mr. Chamberlain continued: "The final shaping of this territory and the question of restoration of the Polish State are in Hitler's view problems which cannot be settled by war in the west but exclusively by Russia on the one side and Germany on the other."

"We must take it then, that the proposals which the German Chancellor puts forward are to be based on the recognition of his conquests. It would be impossible for Britain to accept any such basis without forfeiting her honour and abandoning her claim that international disputes should be settled by discussion and not by force." (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain went on to say that he would pass over the passages designed to give fresh assurances to Hitler's neighbours since they would know what value should be attached to them by reference to similar assurances he had given in the past.

"Nor can we pass over Hitler's radical departure from the long professed principles of his policy and creed instanced by the inclusion in the German Reich of many millions of Poles and Czechs, despite his repeated professions to the contrary, and by the Pact with the Soviet Union concluded after his repeated violent denunciations of Bolshevism."

UNSUPPORTED WORD

After referring to this repeated disregard of Hitler's word and "sudden reversal of policy," the Prime Minister went on to say, "The plain truth is that after our past experiences it is no longer possible to rely upon the unsupported word of the present German Government (Loud Cheers). It is no part of our policy to exclude from a rightful place in Europe, a Germany which will live in amity and confidence with other nations."

"On the contrary, we believed that no effective remedy can be found for the world's ills that does not take account of the just claims and needs of all countries and, whenever the time may come, to draw the lines of a new settlement."

NO ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVANCE THIS YEAR

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—It was officially announced yesterday in London that His Majesty the King had decided that the Armistice Day Service at the Cenotaph should not be held this year.

A later message from London stated that owing to the necessity of maintaining A.R.P. precautions, there will be no Armistice Day ceremony at the Cenotaph this year. Nov. 11 will be observed as Poppy Day as usual and it is suggested that the following Sunday be observed as a day of remembrance and dedication.

"His Majesty's Government would feel that the future would hold little hope unless such a settlement could be reached through the method of negotiation and agreement. It is not with any vindictive purpose we embarked on the war but simply in defence of freedom."

WORLD PEACE IN JEOPARDY "It is not alone the freedom of a small nation that is at stake. There is also in jeopardy the peaceful existence of Britain, the Dominions, India and the rest of the British Empire. France and indeed the freedom of all peace-loving countries. (Loud cheers.)"

"Looking forward to the future we can see deep changes which will inevitably leave their mark on every field of men's thought and action. All nations will have their part to play."

CRUEL LOSS

Mr. Chamberlain said that the Government knew that in a modern war between great powers the victor and vanquished must suffer cruel loss "but surrender to wrong doing would spell the extinction of all hope and annihilation of all those values of life which have through centuries been at once the mark and inspiration of human progress. (Loud cheers.)"

"We seek no material advantage for ourselves and desire nothing from the German people which would offend their self-respect. We are not aiming at victory but rather looking beyond it to the laying of a foundation for a better international system which will mean that war is not to be the inevitable lot of every succeeding generation. (Loud cheers.)"

"I am certain that all peoples of Europe, including the people of Germany, long for peace, peace which will enable them to live their lives without fear and devote their energies and gifts to the development of their culture and in pursuit of their ideals and improvement of their material prosperity," he concluded.

GERMAN'S CHOICE

Mr. Chamberlain concluded: "There is, thus, a primary consideration to be satisfied. Only the German Government can fulfil it. If they won't there can as yet be no new or better world order."

"Either the German Government must give convincing proof of the sincerity of their desire for peace by definite acts and the provision of effective guarantees and their intention to fulfil their undertakings, or we must persevere in our duties to the end. It is for Germany to make her choice. (Loud cheers.)"

"Peace conditions cannot be acceptable which begin by condoning aggression." After saying that Hitler's proposals were uncertain and contained no suggestion for righting

JUST WHAT FRANCE HAS WAITED FOR

PARIS, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—The French Premier's firm reply to Herr Hitler's speech is warmly welcomed by all sections of the Paris press.

The "Figaro" thinks M. Daladier's speech contained all the characteristics of the French race—good feeling, restraint, humanity and indelible tenacity.

"L'Ouvre" says the speech was clear and reasonable and reflected what the man-in-the-street thinks. It is exactly what the country was waiting for.

The German News Agency comments mildly on the French Premier's speech. It says that, at first reading shows the speech differs on various points from the German views, but on M. Daladier's insistence that a guarantee of security is needed, this is in line with the sentiments expressed in Herr Hitler's own speech.

THREE WEDDINGS AT REGISTRY

The following weddings took place at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday. Mr. T. J. Gould, Deputy Registrar of Marriages, officiated.

Mr. Lai Shiu-tung, bank clerk, residing at No. 10, Kennedy Terrace, and Miss Wong Lai-sheng, of No. 4, Perfection Place, Tai Hang; Mr. Li Chun-yuen, merchant, of No. 129, Main Street, and Miss Fan Lai-ching, residing at No. 10, Main Street; Mr. Leung Wing-yun, draughtsman, residing at No. 167, Fleming Road, and Miss Au Lai-yung, mid-wife, of No. 2, Shau-kiwan Road.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following forthcoming marriages are announced:—Mr. Lau Tin-kwong, merchant, residing at No. 139, Sai Yee Street, and Miss Leo Wah-chun, mid-wife, of No. 137, Sai Yee Street; Mr. Remoe Gasparini, residing at No. 108, Austin Road, and Miss Eleanor Alsop Jefferson, of European American Grocery, residing at No. 3, Shelley Street, and Miss Fung Mui-sun, of No. 16, W. in Fong East; Lieut. Nigel Hadley Miller D.O.Y. of the Royal Scots, and Miss Dolores Gregory, of No. 460, The Peak.

wrongs, Mr. Chamberlain said. "Even if the proposals contained suggestions to right wrongs it would still be necessary to ask by what practical means the German Government intends to convince the world that aggression will end and pledges will be kept."

Repeating his statement that no reliance could be placed on German promises, Mr. Chamberlain stated: "Acts—not words—must be forthcoming before we British and the people of France, our gallant and trusted ally, would be justified in cringing to wage the war to the utmost of our strength. The peace which we are determined to secure must be a real and settled peace, not an uneasy truce interrupted by constant alarms and repeated threats. What stands in the way of such a peace?"

"It is the German Government, and the German Government alone, for it is they who by their repeated acts of aggression have robbed all Europe of tranquillity and implanted in the hearts of all their neighbours an ever-present sense of insecurity and fear. I am glad to think there is complete agreement between His Majesty's Government and the French Government."

Mr. Chamberlain referred to M. Daladier's speech and quoted an extract which was loudly cheered. "Advantage has also been taken of the presence in England of the Polish Foreign Minister whom we are very glad to welcome (Loud cheers) to consult with the Polish Government and I am happy to say we have found an entire identity of views (Cheers)."

"Only when world confidence is restored will it be possible to find a solution of the questions disturbing the world and which stand in the way of disarmament and retard the restoration of trade and prevent the improvement of the well-being of people," concluded the Prime Minister.

COMMONS GIVEN FULL DETAILS OF BRITAIN'S LAND FORCES: WELL & EFFECTIVELY EQUIPPED

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Mr. Leslie Hore Belisha, continuing his statement in the House of Commons yesterday, on the part being played by the British Army in the war, and comparing it with 1914, said: "Now only twenty per cent of the fighting troops are infantry men, with fifty Bren guns, sixteen anti-tank rifles and other weapons as, well, compared with nearly sixty per cent of the fighting troops in 1914 who were infantrymen."

"It will be seen by this one example how much more effectively armed with the fire power is the present expeditionary force. There is, however, one respect in which our Army has not altered; in its relation with our Allies, who have welcomed the men so generously, are as good."

Commenting on what he saw in a recent G. H. Q. visit, Mr. Hore Belisha said, "I would like their parents and wives to know that they are in fine spirits. The only serious shortcomings at the moment appear to be the inadequacy of cigarettes and the slowness in the delivery of letters."

TRAINING SYSTEM

Recalling the peace-time military training system and the doubling of the Territorials, Mr. Hore Belisha said: "Altogether, we had at the disposal of the Army in this country alone, including reservists and militia, the best part of a million men on whom we could call. Never has the total of our armed forces in the United Kingdom approached anywhere near such a total in time of peace. The growth has been rapid and has placed a great burden of organisation on the Regular Army."

Recalling the growth of the Army, Mr. Hore Belisha said that in April a plan for nineteen divisions became a plan for 32.

"This will not be the limit of our effort. Great calls will be made upon our man-power."

Concluding, Mr. Hore Belisha said: "While the world was reading of the German advances into Poland, British soldiers, resolved to rectify this wrong were passing silently and in unceasing sequence across the Channel into France. How strange it is that twice in a generation men should take this journey, and that some should be trading again upon soil made sacred by their fathers."

"We may rest assured that they will acquit themselves with the same tenacity, courage and endurance. However long the struggle and however great the ordeal, they will, as our soldiers did before, take out arms and our cause of freedom to victory."

UNITY OF COMMAND

Replying to a brief debate, Mr. Hore Belisha said: "I have been asked if unity of command is assured. The answer is 'yes, it is.'"

WANCHAI FIRE

A fire which broke out at 10.30 a.m. yesterday on the ground floor of No. 174, Lockhart Road, occupied by the Fun Nam-wah cotton quilt shop, caused about $1,000 damage, as the entire floor and the stock of quilts was entirely gutted. Three appliances were summoned.

Max Malini, the famous magician, entertained a large number of children at the St. John's Cathedral yesterday.

4,000 PLANES A MONTH!

BRITISH AIRCRAFT IS MORE THAN DOUBLED

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—British aircraft production before the start of the present war was well over 1,000 planes a month.

This revelation is made on the highest authority by the air correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph," Group Captain Payne.

He says that the Air Ministry announcement that production is already more than double that at the beginning of September means that the output has been raised to about 4,000 planes a month. This, together with the greatly increased French production, assures an increasing ascendancy in the air of the Allies.

MONUMENT UNVEILED IN SHAI

SHANGHAI, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—Three hundred and five British officers and men who fell defending Shanghai during the Taping Rebellion 70 years ago were honoured when Major-General F. Keith Simmons, Commander of the British forces here, unveiled a monument to their memory at their new resting place in the Hunjiao Road Cemetery, which belongs to the Shanghai Municipal Council.

The remains of the men were transferred a few days ago from Nantao, the Chinese area adjacent to the French Concession. The inscription on it reads: "Sacred to the memory of 305 officers and men of the British Army who died in defence of the foreign settlements 1862-1865. In order to secure for violation their last earthly resting place, the mortal remains of these officers and men were removed by the Shanghai Municipal Council from the original soldiers' cemetery adjoining the wall of the old Chinese City and re-interred here on October 3, 1939."

The dead officers and men came from the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, 1st Battalion, East Surrey Regiment, 6th Regiment, the 19th Baluch Regiment, and certain departmental units.

A Chinese wedding took place in Kowloon yesterday afternoon, the reception being held at the Peninsula Hotel. The bridegroom was Mr. Johnson Kuo who recently arrived from Shanghai aboard a Dutch ship.

WESTERN FRONT

PARIS, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—The German High Command seems determined to obtain information of the French strategic positions and their strength along the Rhine-Meuse front.

No big attack, with masses of infantry, has been launched, but persistent raids have been made by small patrols in attempting to gather information and to take prisoners from whom facts of the situation might be gathered.

Machine and light gun fire have held up all raiding parties.

NAZI ARMY WANTS VON RIBBENTROP DISMISSED

Inquiry Into U.S. Writers' Allegations Demanded

URGENT APPROACHES MADE TO HITLER

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—It is reliably learned that, in South Germany in the past few days, Herr Hitler has been urgently approached by high German Army officers and prominent private citizens to set up a Commission of Enquiry (on which the Army would be represented) to enquire into the statements of the American journalist, Mr. Knickerbocker, that Nazi leaders have deposited large sums abroad.

It is intolerable (representations to Herr Hitler said) that German soldiers should be giving their lives in the defence of the Nazi Government, against their own laws, are preparing to flee abroad at the first sign of adversity.

ANOTHER REPORT

The report is of particular interest, taken in conjunction with another reliable report that the Army asking for the dismissal of the Foreign Minister, Herr Von Ribbentrop, for purposely misinforming Herr Hitler of the British and French reaction to the invasion of Poland.

OPTIMISM PREVAILS

HELSINKI, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—An official spokesman stated that a feeling of optimism prevails at the Foreign Office regarding the outcome of the talks in Moscow. He also expressed appreciation of the American, British and Scandinavian sympathies.

Helsinki University has been closed indefinitely as most of the undergraduates have joined the Army. The City Council has granted permission for establishing air raid precautions in city streets and courtyards.

BRITISH DESTROYERS SINK TWO U-BOATS

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (Reuter).—How two German U-Boats were sunk by British destroyers was described by members of the crew of the British freighter Newton Pine (4,212 tons) of the Tynehead Line, which arrived in America yesterday.

One of the seamen said that they left England after war was declared and for the first four days of the voyage were convoyed by destroyers.

Three German submarines tried to attack the convoy and from the decks of the Newton Pine they saw two U-Boats sunk.

One was only 100 yards from their port rail and after the destroyers had dropped depth charges, a great geyser of oil and wreckage shot above the surface.

They also saw a British steamer sunk by a torpedo. A British ship was steaming up to join the convoy when a torpedo hit her. There was one big explosion and the ship literally vanished.

NAVAL WEDDING IN SINGAPORE

Lt. R. E. Boddington & Miss H. E. Hance

The wedding took place at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Singapore, on October 2, between Lieut. Robert Evelyn Boddington, of the H.M.S. Submarine Rover, and son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Boddington, of Hinton, Peterborough, Herefordshire, and Miss Heather Elizabeth Hance, daughter of Mr. J. Hance, formerly with Messrs. Butterfield & Swire, Hongkong, and now retired and Mrs. Hance.

The Rev. N. Williams, of H.M.S. Midway, officiated.

The bride was given away by Capt. Hubert Marsham, Commander of the Rover, and was dressed in a gown of white French crepe, and wore a sapphire and diamond pendant, a gift from the bridegroom. She also had a tulle veil with a garland of flowers in her hair and her bouquet was of lilies and carnations.

Miss Stella Strachen-Smith, the bridesmaid, wore a dress of blue georgette, and carried a bouquet of hydrangeas and daisies. The best-man was Lieut. R. A. St. Clair Spruell-Barton, of H.M. Submarine Proteus.

The reception was held at the Airport Hotel, and the honeymoon is to be spent at the Sea View Hotel.

The bride's going-away ensemble consisted of a white pigskin suit with turban and an orange blouse and accessories.

WORKMAN ELECTROCUTED

A verdict of death by misadventure was returned by the Coroner Mr. E. Himsforth, at Kowloon Court yesterday, when an inquiry was held into the death of a workman, Chan Lai-tai, whose dead body was found on the roof of Chinman's Garage on September 2.

Dr. E. H. Tai, who conducted the post mortem, said that death was due to electric shock. Mr. A. Spary, of the P.W.D., told the Court he inspected the roof following the accident and found that a metal sheet, used in constructing a balcony, had been laid on the wire, causing the rubber insulation, and thereby causing the metal sheet to come "alive."

Suggestions For Home Vegetable Cultivation

The following suggestions on how fresh vegetables may be grown in Hongkong, thus alleviating the dependence of the Colony upon outside sources, is from the pen of Mr. F. Filippance, Superintendent of the Botanical and Forestry Department, and is issued by the Nutrition Research Committee.

The abnormal times in which we live demands from us all some sort of effort to help things along. Not the least important of these is the necessity for ensuring that Hongkong shall have a sufficiency of fresh vegetables in order to provide a satisfactory diet for its large population.

Of the large quantity of vegetables consumed daily only a relatively small amount is produced in the Colony. A much greater proportion could be produced if a concerted effort were made. It is in this connection that many residents can help, for by production for home consumption in their own gardens and homes, they will be helping to ensure that market stocks will be sufficient to provide for everyone. In addition, they will help to prevent prices rising should supplies be insufficient to meet demand at any time.

Types of Garden

For those householders who have a garden or back yard the matter is fairly simple and involves a general vegetable garden procedure which may be seen at many places in Hongkong and Kowloon. In the case of those people who are not so situated it is still possible for them to produce some vegetables if they have an open verandah or flat roof available.

To do this it is necessary to establish what might be termed a "pot garden." In this type of garden all sorts of receptacles may be used such as tubs, boxes, flower pots, tins, etc., of a size sufficiently large to give the necessary root room to the plants.

Requirements

The important requirements in vegetable production are, fairly good soil, water, and of course, seeds. Soil can be obtained almost anywhere, but it does not follow that satisfactory results will be obtained unless attention is given to providing the plants with some of the essential plant foods. Whether the vegetable garden is a piece of land or a "spot garden" such is the composition of most of the Colony soils that it is wise to put something into the soil if one hopes to obtain a crop from it.

In the Urban area the use of animal manure is not in the best interests of health so that it becomes necessary to try to improve the soil by other means. While not ideal, quite a lot can be done by utilising substances which are often thrown away or burnt. Chief of these are grass trimmings, leaves, garden rubbish generally, wood ash from cooking operations and ash from the garden rubbish heap.

All these contain extremely useful plant foods and if treated properly they provide a useful substitute for manure. It is necessary to put them into the ground or incorporate them in the potting soil in a broken down form, that is, they should be in a well rotted state.

Heap in Layers

This can be brought about more quickly by making a heap in layers, i.e., a layer of rubbish, a layer of soil, and so on. It should be well watered occasionally and be turned from time to time. When sufficiently decomposed, wood ash, etc., and a sprinkling of lime should be added; this compost should be incorporated in the soil either by digging in or mixing with the potting soil. For those people able to afford it a complete plant fertilizer in correct proportions should be added to the compost. For the "pot garden" a mixture of this nature incorporated into the ordinary soil, will produce very much better results. In the case of those people so placed, that even this addition is not possible, there still remains the wood ash and (if it can be managed) a little lime, which will make the soil more productive and give some return for the labour spent on the work.

Round The Shops

TWIN SETS

The sweater and skirt are always a cherished possession of the autumn and winter wardrobe, and LANE, CRAWFORD'S is the shop where you will find this particular item of your sport's wardrobe. Twin sets in the new shade of tomato, and turquoise, a new shade, blends beautifully with many colours in skirts.

Don't forget the lovely cashmere selections by "Jaeger."

AFTERNOON FROCK

RIVELLE, in the Gloucester Arcade, is where you will find the latest in afternoon and evening attire. Crepe models with full skirts and interesting bodice treatments. The large assortment of evening attire includes the various new models, and the sophisticated fashion of novel colour scheme combined with interesting sparkling trimmings.

AUTUMN FELTS

Hats and shoes! The outstanding accessories of the costume—try MAYOS, in the Arcade. New millinery models have just been received, fur felts in shades of navy, brown, and the popular black. The shapes vary, and the new crushed crowns are extremely smart.

The exotic and lovely evening gowns are the latest arrivals in the Colony and their fantastic styling will not only please, but definitely intrigue you, in their novel treatment.

NEW AND OLD

To-day, at REMÉ, the shop where the chic and ultra smart chapeaux are sold, a new shipment of French and fur felts arrive for autumn costumes.

If you are retrenching—see what this shop can do with your last year's favourite felt. The blocking, cleaning and re-fashioning of last year's bonnet means a new style for this coming season.

And don't forget this season's evening attire calls for evening millinery. The selection is small in this particular group, but copies can be made exact and in this shop you will find quality and inexpensiveness combined.

BEAUTY HINT

The Parisian woman new elegance in this hair dress designed by Gelland for Rosalind Russell. Back and front hair are separated with across-crown part; from a left front part the hair is brushed up and back in a roll ending in two flat curls, and is caught tightly just above the curls with a wide gros-grain bow.

Golden City Restaurant Now Open

Yesterday marked the grand opening of the Golden City Restaurant. A de luxe, Chinese restaurant, it is situated in the busy heart of the town, a stone's throw from the newly-built Central Market. Its building of five storeys, partly of marble and partly of terrazzo ranks as the first of its kind where restaurants in the Colony are concerned.

The interior decorations are a combination of classical and modernistic Chinese craftsmanship. Each little spot in the building with the exception of the third storey which is more Roman than Chinese in design, reproduces a place either of great historical interest or scenic beauty in China.

In the first storey is to be found the "Pavilion of the Lake's Heart" of the famous West Lake in Hangchow, while the second storey is replaced by more modern structures, symbolising the progress of modern China. The fourth storey brings us back to Peking, (now called Peiping), capital of Imperial China. Here one sees the Summer Palace, the Temple and Altar of Heaven (Tien Tan), the Wall of HORIZONTAL GATHERING on the bodice and halter and shoulder straps are the only break in the utter simplicity of this black and crepe evening gown, worn by Laisne Day, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer actress. The skirt is toe-length in front; its back fullness swings to a slight train. A long-sleeved bolero, with gold embroidery border, is worn with the gown.

TO BE IN FASHION

Variety and discretion are the better part of autumn's and winter's wardrobe. Molyneux's hoop-flared day skirts walk beside Piguet's modern peg-topped "hobble" skirts. Balenciaga's wide Velasquez pannier dresses dance past Paquin's tightly wrapped mummy-skirts. Schiaparelli's full, Turkish-harem, ankle-length evening clothes vie with her own slim 1880 bustle-backed skirts.

Molyneux's plastered-to-the-figure bodices for day are directly in contrast to Chanel's softly shirred ones. So be careful—use discretion.

Suzzy says, tuck your hair in a snood bag. Talbot says, wrap your chin in a mesh bandage veil. And Schiaparelli says, hold your hat on with a forehead or chin strap. Nothing varies more, than silhouette. You can look as different as your worst enemy, and both of you will be right. The only thing you must have in common is a tiny waist held in, if necessary, by super light-weight, boned, and laced corsets. There isn't a silhouette in Paris, England or America, that doesn't cave in at the waist.

PEG-TOP EFFECT

Piguet's modern variation of the hobble-skirt, in which you can actually walk comfortably, is merely a revival from pre-World-War days. The peg-top effect, a narrow look around the knees and soft drapery around the hips is something you'd better get used to.

Flared-skirts continue, youthful and easy to wear, particularly when flared, from the hip-bone with godets such as Molyneux's or when topped with the shortest fur bolero and held in with the widest belts. When day skirts are full, they look better short; when slim or draped, they are worn a little longer.

Individual proportions should be studied, every woman taking a good look at her legs before she decides where her skirts should end.

CIGARETTE SILHOUETTE

The cigarette silhouette belongs to Schiaparelli. Long, tubular jackets discreetly draped up in back, a feminine look around the chin with fur blue, ribbon or tulle hat strings tying under the chin, fur or fabric muffs over the stomach.

Nine Dragons (Jeu Long Bili), the Temple of the Happy Year (Chi Nien Tien) and other sanctuaries in which the Emperor himself worshipped.

The restaurant is staffed with the best Chinese cooks who have come from all parts of the country, and European customers who appreciate things Chinese are specially catered for at moderate charges. The kitchen department, installed under the most hygienic conditions, is open to inspection at all times during the day. With pretty Chinese waitresses who have undergone a course of training in manners befitting their duties of entertaining guests, one is assured of comfort and service without parallel in the Far East.

And very, very important common denominator at night is that covered look, even in formal dresses. Bare, strapless shoulders are still shown, but sheltered shoulders outnumber them. Long sleeves and high necks, developed in superb fabrics, achieve the new elegance. The focal point is from the waist down. Bodices are moulded to below the hips with flared tulle skirts.

Molyneux's perfectly proportioned, ankle-length evening dresses will destroy any resistance you have to short evening skirts. So will Schiaparelli's ankle-length harem-skirts turned under at the hem.

BLACK DOMINATES

Your colours and fabrics—black dominates all the smart fashion centres. Most brilliant of the colours are billiard-green, cerise, orange, and Lelong's Robin Hood red and greens, but what looks newest are colours suggesting threatening skies: thunderous greys, thick-mist blues, sea-storm greens, and purples so dark they have the quality of black. They suggest such adjectives as sullen, foreboding, inky and stormy.

Day fabrics include soft woolsens, spongy crepes, duvetines, miles of silk or wool jersey, miles of black silk velvet. For evening, extremely rich fabrics. Again much velvet, damasks, taffetas, brocades, stiff and soft satins, black moire with wide satin stripes, plaid and checked velvets, many of them actual reproductions of last century fabrics.

LATEST IN HEADS

The chief newcomer in coiffures is the head with two or four vertical curls set at the nape of the neck or flat against the base of the head.

Schiaparelli alone continues sleek, brushed-up hair with a huge, loose puff-roll on top.

Long locks are held captive and kempt looking in snood-bags. Balenciaga suggests that your head look like Velasquez's Infanta, and milliner Legroux carried out the idea by making a tiny violet felt hat with black fox tails hanging down each side.

At night, he manages the Infanta look by tying multiple ribbon bow-knots on both sides of the head.

And Chanel piles glycerinated ostrich, flecked with pale-leaves into a towering evening head-dress.

For general daytime wear the coiffure sweeps back from the ears and sides of the brow to finish in the back in long round curls which drop to the nape of the neck and hang loosely. The up in the back style is on the wane. Barretts and novelty hair pins are back in the market, and are being worn by all fashionable ladies.

PRESTO! THE SCOOP OF THE MONTH

TWO OUTSTANDING COSTUMES for autumn and winter that will be most satisfying and interesting to the ladies with a "clothes budgeting" problem are a morning and afternoon costume.

The particular two selections can be varied by their accessories to mean four entirely different and novel outfits.

First Costume

AND HERE THEY ARE: The little black wool suit, consisting of a collarless bellhop jacket and flared skirt; it is most important and new. With the suit use a black stitched suede bag with a glint of metal; a scarlet suede beret (extremely new and smart); and a red jersey boat-neck shirt. Red suede alp-on; gloves and black suede and alligator calf pumps complete number one picture.

With the same two piece black suit and for dressier occasions wear a red, black and white check taffeta blouse, black felt accordion crown hat with red band, black suede gloves, and high-cut black suede shoes.

Second Costume

AND NOW FOR THE SECOND COSTUME—The basic dress is in black rayon crepe, long-sleeved and collarless, with bodice shirred on to a bill-yoke, and gathered on skirt with front fullness. With this dress wear a black suede box bag, cushion-brim black felt hat with mustard suede band and natural quill, and black suede cut-out shoes. A mustard suede belt, with covered buckle, and matching mustard suede gloves finishes the costume.

To be absolutely dressy wearing this same frock of "Bright Black" use the same black suede bag and shoes with a shirred velvet toque with snood, a golden necklace and black suede gloves.

The expense of these two styles and their accessories is quite small, you will find "quality" and not "quantity."

Anglo-Soviet Barter Pact

RUSSIAN TIMBER FOR BRITISH TIN AND RUBBER

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuter)—It was officially announced that an agreement was concluded yesterday between the Ministry of Supply and the Soviet Trade Delegation to exchange Russian Timber for certain quantities of rubber and tin.

The agreement is described as a commercial transaction, not political.

It is pointed out that these commodities are normally part of Anglo-Russian Trade dealings.

The announcement mentions the impediment of shipping in Russian ports after the ice sets in and states that the difficulties caused by withholding export licences had the effect of holding up a number of cargoes of wood.

OBJECT OF PACT

The object of the negotiations was to secure the release of goods needed by Russia and vice versa.

The tin involved has, to a large extent, been paid for through instalments in a long running commercial contract. The quantities are not regarded as exceptional and all prices of wood, tin and rubber were fixed.

U.S. TO BOYCOTT GERMAN AND SOVIET GOODS

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (Reuter)—The American Federation of Labour passed a resolution unanimously confirming the Trade Union boycott of German goods.

The Federation extended the boycott to Russian goods and to all other countries who might join the totalitarians against countries with a Parliamentary Government.

WAR WILL HELP SOUTH AFRICA TO DEVELOP HER MINERAL ORES

Enough For Own And Allies' Needs

CAPETOWN, Oct. 12 (Reuter)—In South Africa it is expected that the war will lead to a development of the Dominion's mineral ores. It is calculated that the Dominion will produce enough for her own requirements and also will be able to ship the surplus to Great Britain and the Allies.

South Africa contains nearly all the metals and oils required by modern industry, though only the more accessible products are now being worked.

Mining products are exported as raw materials, the finished articles being mainly imported.

BASE METALS

Among the base metals in South Africa are asbestos, chrome and manganese. There are large reserves of these and also of iron, copper, tin and vanadium.

The recent advance in technical skill will enable most of the problems of plant and equipment to be solved locally.

An estimate made two years ago placed the value of South Africa's untouched base minerals at over £30,000,000.

Better Off Than Before

BRITAIN'S SOUND SHIPPING POSITION

LONDON, Oct. 12 (Reuters)

—In the past fortnight Britain has taken 13,515 tons of enemy shipping and lost by U-boat action, 5,898 tons, leaving a balance in our favour of 7,616 tons.

Giving this information at question time in the House of Commons, Mr. Winston Churchill declared that there had been no further losses since Oct. 9 and added that in the past sixteen days 50,000 tons of new merchant shipping, prepared for such an emergency, have come into the water.

Therefore, the country is 58,000 tons better off than when Mr. Churchill made his last statement.

COMMODITY MARKET REVIEW

(FROM PAYNE & CO.)

New York, October 11, 1939.

JAN-MARCH	31-3/4	32-1/2	32-1/2	—
APRIL-JUNE	31-1/4	32	32	—

The market was steady.

COTTON: Prices advanced easily on domestic trade buying, which, however, was only of moderate proportions. Hedging was small on prospects that the Government will shortly be making loans to the farmers against "spot" cotton. Cotton cloth sales for the past two weeks were encouraging. We favour a constructive attitude.

RUBBER: The strength of the market is largely reflecting the firmness of the London market and the continued reports of London buying to fulfill the Barter agreement. Commission Houses were buying and covering. Dealers were not in the market.

WHEAT: Early eagerness was in evidence, prices being influenced by a fair amount of profit-taking and realizing. Prices turned firmer, however, in the later period of trading, following receipt of reports of complaints of drought conditions in the South-west, thus bringing renewed Commission House demand and local short-covering. Attention is being given that if this drought should continue unbroken for the next three weeks, it would be certain to result in a short crop in 1940.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 150.86. To-day's Close, 151.34. Change, up 58.

OPENED LETTER CONTAINING A CHEQUECentral Court
Sequel

Having opened a letter addressed to Lo Hing-ho, and found within the envelope a cheque for $100, a man, Lo Kwan-hop, was alleged to have made an attempt to cash it through his folk, Lui Chung, who passed the cheque to several others, and, as a result, Lo Kwan-hop, 28, manager of Nam Cheung paper shop, and Lui Chung, 32, paper cutter, appeared before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Magistracy yesterday, charged with stealing a letter on or about September 8, at No. 3 Sa Wa Fong; diversion of a postal packet addressed to Lo Hing-ho with intent to obtain some benefit.

Det.-Sgt. J. M. Forrest conducted the prosecution.

Lo Hing-ho, in evidence, stated that he received his last letter on September 9, informing him that a cheque for $100 was being sent to him by a friend in New York. As he did not receive the cheque he informed the bank authorities with regard to the loss.

Choi Chiu, postman No. 204, said that he remembered having delivered the letter to the first floor of No. 3 Sa Wa Fong.

His Worship dismissed the first charge against the defendants, but convicted them on the second charge.

First defendant was fined $150, in default, three months' hard labour, while the second defendant was bound over in $50 for one year.

Government Has Purchased
Entire Quantity Of Rice Considered Necessary For Emergency Purposes

The revelation that in the last three months the Government had purchased the entire quantity of rice considered necessary for emergency purposes was made at yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Council by the Financial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. S. Caine, when seconding the Attorney General's motion for the first reading of the Essential Commodities Reserves Ordinance.

The Ordinance will provide for the maintenance of reserve stocks of commodities which would be considered essential for the vital needs of the community during war or other public emergency.

The Bill, which follows generally the lines of the Ceylon Essential Commodities Reserves Ordinance, will apply in the first instance to rice. It will implement, but does not repeal, the provisions of the Rice Ordinance of 1919.

After revealing that Government had already amassed stocks of rice, the Financial Secretary said that in view of the necessity for preserving secrecy in doing so the Government had not approached the Council for funds. The transactions, he said, had been financed by bank advances.

The Bill provides for the registration of importers of such commodities as may be considered essential. Importers of rice will be invited to state the quantities they desire to import within a specified period, while Government stocks will be turned over to licensed importers and will not be placed in the open market.

The scheme, said the Financial Secretary, had been fully discussed; and he believed that it was workable.

VOLUNTEER ORDINANCE

The Attorney General moved, and the Colonial Secretary seconded, the first reading of a Bill to amend further the Volunteer Ordinance of 1933. The object of the bill is to make it necessary for those who desire to quit the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps during the war to obtain the sanction of His Excellency the Governor, as in the case of members of the Hongkong Defence Reserve.

SUPREME COURT ORDER

Moved by the Attorney General, an order made by the Chief Justice rescinding a previous order regulating the commission to be paid to the official administrator was approved.

THEFTS AND LOSSES

U. M. Chen, of 221, Wanchai Road, had his tools valued at $40 stolen from his car, between October 8 and 9.

On a charge of robbery aboard a junk off Nine Pin Island in the waters of the Colony about 5.30 a.m. on Sept. 16, 11 Chinese, a fishing junk master and 10 of his folk, were committed by Mr. H. J. Crutwell, District Officer, South, at Kowloon Court yesterday, to stand their trial at the criminal sessions.

H.K.R.A. Mid-Week Spoon
Shoot: Sappers Repeat
Success Of Last Week

THE ROYAL ENGINEERS REPEATED THEIR SUCCESS OF LAST WEEK BY CARRYING OFF BOTH NETT SPOONS AGAIN.

Lieut. A. J. Seelie, R.E., the Assistant Hon. Secretary, won the "peep-sight" nett spoon for the second week in succession with a score of 97. When this was known on the range, there were murmurings of a hot-trick but of course this remains to be seen.

GOOD EFFORT
L/Cpl. Brighty R.E. shooting in his own inimitable free and easy way, won the open-sight nett spoon with a score of 68, which, considering the bad light he had to contend with at 600 yds., was quite a good effort. L/Cpl. Hammond was second with a score of 86 pulling up very well after a bad start.

The attendance was not as good as usual as many members of the H.K.V.D.C. were unable to attend owing to the fact that the previous day had been a holiday.

The competition was fired at 300 yds., 500 yds. and 600 yards in moderately favourable conditions. What little wind there was offered few difficulties, being mainly light though variable.

LIGHT HANDICAP
The light tended to fall for short periods at 600 yards and that it proved to be a handicap can be seen by a glance at the scores. The pool bull competitors were quite keen and this ever popular corner of the range was kept busy.

S. Insp. A. C. Chan of the H.K.P.R. was the only competitor to "ring the bell".

HANDICAP SPOONS
Handicap spoons were won by the following:
